NARRATIVE:

James Glee is a documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 19. His convictions include multiple robberies, burglaries, assault with a deadly weapon causing great bodily injury, transporting marijuana, possession of a weapon in a jail, grand theft, domestic violence with injury, petty theft with priors, receiving stolen property, trespassing, possession of a switch blade knife, possession of narcotics, resisting arrest and disturbing the peace. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being an 11 year term for robbery. Glee was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 9, 2014. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in May 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Glee qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for transporting marijuana is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
